

M/S Why Not

Designed by an experienced team of naval architects and built with the love and care that only the finest craftsmen bring to every detail, this luxurious sailing yacht of 24 metres LOD magnificently combines the latest technology with glamour, comfort and classic style. Innovation, luxury and excellence are the characteristics that best define this vessel.

Why Not is a classic ketch motor-sailor whose appearance, both above and below decks, is simply breathtaking. The immense deck, almost entirely clear, includes a sun deck for 8 people as well as a bench seat right forward and a dining area at the stern.

M/S Why Not

The luxurious and elegant interiors are completely fitted in mahogany of the highest quality. Fine mouldings and specially designed furnishings for every corner of the vessel highlight the beauty and spaciousness of her ample living quarters. All accommodation is equipped with independently controlled air-conditioning.

Four splendid cabins with music centre and flat-screen television, each with its en-suite bathroom fitted with hydro-massage showers, allow for comfortable accommodation for 8 people. The staterooms consist of one master, one VIP, one double and one twin. Two more cabins are for the captain and another double cabin for the deck-hands, each with en-suite bathroom, complete the accommodation area.
